Re: In re Halaco Engineering Company
Bankruptcy Case No. ND 02-12255-RR

Dear Ron:

This will confirm American Tubing, Inc.'s offer to pay $11,200 to the Trustee for the removal of all of the ocean containers, metal boxes, equipment, yellow iron (i.e., "payloaders"), forklifts, maintenance shop, any loose steel and related items at the former Oxnard facility of Halaco Engineering Co. located at 6200 Perkins Road, Oxnard, California 93033. As part of this process, American Tubing will be responsible for draining and properly disposing of all fluids and fires from the various pieces of rolling stock. American Tubing will also provide the Trustee a certificate of insurance showing liability coverage of at least $1,000,000 prior to commencing work at the facility.

Further, this will confirm that American Tubing will not remove or handle any material that has been or may be contaminated, such as tanks, kiln equipment, ocean containers with contaminated materials located in them, dryers or related equipment. In this regard, the Trustee anticipates working with representatives of the United States Environmental Protection Agency regarding the mechanics of American Tubing's work.

The Trustee understands that American Tubing's offer does not include any of the automobiles, boats or campers, some of which may be property of the bankruptcy estate, that remain at the Oxnard facility. However, once the Trustee obtains an order abandoning the estate's interest in these vehicles and boats, American Tubing will arrange to have them towed to a facility that will properly cause the abandonment of them pursuant to California state law, at no additional cost to the Trustee. I have enclosed an approximate list of the personal property which remains at the Oxnard facility, as well as list of the vehicles and boats that are stored at the premises.

This letter will further confirm that American Tubing's offer is subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court after notice to creditors, and that therefore it is necessarily subject to overbid.

Please countersign this letter where indicated below to indicate American Tubing's agreement with the terms set forth above.

Very truly yours,

C. John M. Melissinos
