CLERK U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
Central District of California
BY rodrigue DEPUTY CLERK

In re:

JENNIFER URQUIZU

Disciplinary Proceeding

Case No.: 6:12-mp-00101-GM

ORDER FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTION
REGARDING ATTORNEY DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDING OF JENNIFER URQUIZU

NO HEARING

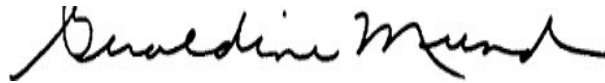

On August 29, 2012 Judge Meredith Jury referred Jennifer Urquizu to the disciplinary process of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. As more fully described in the Memorandum filed concurrently herewith, Judges Brand, Mund, and Robles were assigned as the disciplinary panel in accordance with the Fourth Amended General Order 96-05 of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. Because the Court was unable to give notice to Ms. Urquizu, the panel met on October 3, 2012 and, having reviewed the Statement of Charges contained in the Order re Sanctions and Referral to Discipline, hereby adopts the facts set forth therein.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

Jennifer Urquizu is immediately denied the right to practice before the judges of the United States Bankruptcy Court of the Central District of California. After five years have passed from the date of entry of this order, Ms. Urquizu may apply for

1 reinstatement in conformance with the procedures set forth in General Order 96-05 or
2 any successor thereto that is in effect at the time of her application for reinstatement. At
3 the time of her application for reinstatement, the issue of payment of the sanctions
4 previously ordered will be taken into consideration as well as all other matters pertinent
5 to her ability to competently practice law.
6

7 Because Ms. Urquizu has failed to provide the Court or the State Bar with her
8 current address, it is possible that she has not had notice of this hearing. If that is the 9 case, she can – at any time – file a request to reconsider. However, the burden will be
10 on her to show that she was not culpable for failing to provide the Court and the State
11 Bar with her current address prior to October 3, 2012.
