The court, having been advised by the United States Trustee for Region 16 that its authorized depositories are no longer willing to waiver fees and service charges incurred by chapter 7 trustees on money of estates on deposit with such institutions, it is

ORDERED that trustees administering cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code in the Central District of California are authorized to incur and pay any actual, necessary expense as contemplated by 11 U.S.C. § 330 for bank fees and charges directly related to the administration of estate accounts; and it is further ORDERED that the court shall retain authority to review and approve such expenses during the administration of the case.

This General Order is effective for all chapter 7 cases pending on or after July 26, 2011, and it shall remain in effect until further order of this court.

DATED: July 26, 2011
