JUDGE SCOTT CLARKSON'S NEW ABI eBook RELEASED

Hon. Scott C. Clarkson's new American Bankruptcy Institute ebook titled 27 Articles for Bankruptcy Judges: A Bankruptcy Judge's Insights on Trying to Get It Right provides an insider's look at judicial conduct, including the right (and wrong) way of doing things. The ebook serves as a useful guide for both new and seasoned judges, practitioners thinking of becoming judges, judicial staff, and anyone who conducts business in and around the courts.

Judge Clarkson's writings are divided into 27 essays, a nod to author T.E. Lawrence's classic set of guidelines under the same name on military leadership during World War I. "This is really a book about the reemergence of civility both in and out of court, and how both judges and the legal profession may strive to promote civility, honesty and integrity throughout the legal system," Judge Clarkson said.

ABI Editor-at-Large Bill Rochelle, author of ABI's Rochelle's Daily Wire, noted Judge Clarkson's ebook is a delight and "It's chock full of hints for newly minted judges." 27 Articles for Bankruptcy Judges: A Bankruptcy Judge's Insights on Trying to Get It Right is now available via the American Bankruptcy Institute Store at the following link: <https://store.abi.org/27-articles-for-bankruptcy-judges-a-bankruptcy-judge-s-insights-on-trying-to-get-it-right.html>.

UPDATES TO THE COURT'S STRATEGIC PLAN UNDERWAY

By: Honorable Julia W. Brand

With the Court's current Strategic Plan set to expire on December 31, 2024, the Court has embarked on the process of drafting a new Strategic Plan. The Committee is comprised of Judges Julia W. Brand (chair), Mark D. Houle, Martin R. Barash, and Ronald A. Clifford III; Executive Officer/Clerk of Court Kathleen J. Campbell; Chief Deputy of Operations Benjamin Varela; Chief Deputy of Administration John C. Hermann; Director of Human Resources and Court Services Beryl Dixon; Manager, Planning & Research Blake Francois; and Senior Court Analyst Dr. Estella Chavarin.

The purpose of the Strategic Plan is to define the direction of the Court for the next five years. The Strategic Plan will identify the Court's mission and vision, identify a set of issues and goals, and formulate key strategies that address the issues and goals.

The Strategic Plan Committee commenced its work in March 2024. The Committee began by analyzing the existing plan and identifying changes that should be made to the Plan, in light of the societal and organizational changes that have occurred since the development of the current Strategic Plan, including, for example, the increased use of technology in the courtroom and the greater ability of parties to appear in court remotely. Once a draft plan is completed, the Committee will seek feedback from internal and external stakeholder groups. The Committee will consider the comments of the stakeholders and revise the draft plan, as appropriate. The draft plan will then be submitted to the Board of Judges for their review. After any additional changes are incorporated, the Plan will be submitted to the Board of Judges for approval. The Committee expects this process to be completed by December 2024 so that the plan may be implemented in January 2025.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW DELEGATION VISIT

By: Deborah Chang, Law Clerk to the Honorable Julia W. Brand

On March 14, 2024, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, Los Angeles Division, hosted 20 law students, one faculty, and one staff member from the Syracuse University College of Law. The students are 25–35-year-old law students in their second or third year of law school with some graduating this coming May. Many of them are career professionals and have careers either in law or in other industries. They come from all over the country and are pursuing their degree via the law school’s online platform, JDinteractive. The delegation observed hearings before the Honorable Julia W. Brand, which included contested chapter 7 and chapter 11 matters. They then participated in discussions with Judge Brand, Judge Sandra R. Klein, and Judge Neil W. Bason, which covered questions including their favorite and least favorite matters to hear, why they decided to become judges, and advice they would give to new attorneys. The judges were very happy to share their experiences and insights, and the students were very engaged. After the discussion, Kathy Campbell, Executive Officer/Clerk of Court, presented an overview of the court. The visit ended with a brief tour of the 9th floor by Kevin Hernandez, Operations Manager (Los Angeles).

BANKRUPTCY FRAUD PROSECUTIONS

The following information has been provided by the Office of the United States Trustee:

USA v. Slingerland

Chapter 7 debtor, Youth Policy Institute (YPI), was an anti-poverty agency that provided job training, after school programs, and other services to some of Los Angeles city's low income neighborhoods. YPI filed a Chapter 7 petition in the Los Angeles Bankruptcy Court on November 5, 2019. YPI had conducted several internal audits and discovered that Howard Dixon Slingerland (who was president and CEO of YPI for 23 years) had misappropriated $1,770,342 from YPI. Slingerland claimed that the payments were reimbursements for his business expenses. In November 2021, the chapter 7 trustee filed an adversary complaint for recovery of the funds. On January 17, 2023, the U.S. Attorney's Office filed an information alleging that Slingerland had committed one count of conversion and intentional misapplication of funds from an organization receiving federal funds and a second count for filing a false federal tax return. On December 12, 2023, Slingerland pleaded guilty, and the U. S. District Court entered its judgment and order of commitment. Slingerland will serve six months in the Lompoc federal prison, two years of supervised release, 200 community service hours, and will pay restitution in the amount of $750,470.56. Slingerland must report to the U.S. penitentiary at Lompoc, California no later than March 25, 2024. Press Release

USA v. Beal

Stephen William Beal pleaded guilty to wire fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. 1343, Social Security Fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. 408(a) (1), and Concealment of Bankruptcy Assets in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 152(1). As to the bankruptcy fraud charge, Beal pleaded guilty to failing to report in a bankruptcy proceeding $350,000 he received from his late wife's accidental death policy. (Case No. 2:20-cr-00060-JLS). Sentencing is currently scheduled March 28, 2024.

In a separate trial, Beal was found guilty by a federal jury of building and planting a package bomb that detonated inside an Aliso Viejo day spa in May 2018, killing his ex-girlfriend, causing serious injuries to two spa clients, and damaging a commercial office building. Earlier this year, Beal was sentenced to life in prison. Press Release and Press Release Sentencing
