COURT PRESENTS STRATEGIC PLAN TO LOCAL BANKRUPTCY ATTORNEYS

Earlier this year, Chief Bankruptcy Judge Peter H. Carroll assembled the Strategic Planning Committee to draft a Strategic Plan for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. In preparing a draft of the plan, the committee solicited comments from judges, lawyers, staff members, and the public.

The Strategic Plan defines the direction of the Court for the next five years. Additionally, the Strategic Plan identifies long-term issues facing the Court and formulates goals and strategies to address each of these issues. With direction from the Court's Executive Committee and assistance from the Clerk of Court and staff, the Court's judicial committees will be responsible for the implementation of the Strategic Plan.

Recently, the Strategic Planning Committee was contacted by M. Jonathan Hayes of the Central District Consumer Bankruptcy Attorney Association (CDCBAA). Mr. Hayes asked the committee to present a draft of the Strategic Plan at CDCBAA's June 22 meeting at the Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, California, and the committee agreed. Chief Judge Carroll opened the presentation with an introduction to the Court's Strategic Plan. Clerk of Court Kathleen Campbell provided an overview of the Central District of California, our judges, the economic climate, and shared administrative services. At the close of the introduction and overview, the committee turned to the five main issues that the current draft of the Court's Strategic Plan addresses.

Chief Judge Carroll began the presentation with a discussion of "Issue 1: Administration of Justice." He described the Court's commitment to providing justice effectively and efficiently given the district's changing demands and resources. Judge Tighe and Judge Clarkson discussed "Issue 2: Access to Justice and Service to the Public." They articulated the importance of the Court's ability to ensure that justice remains accessible to everyone it serves, given the cost of legal representation and the ongoing demographic and socioeconomic changes in the district. From the Clerk's Office staff, Benjamin Varela and Tina Sandoval presented "Issue 3: Judiciary Workforce of the Future," concentrating on the Court's need to attract and retain a diverse staff of highly skilled employees. Judge Saltzman focused on "Issue 4: A Solid Infrastructure." She described the plan's emphasis on building a sound infrastructure, in order both to achieve administrative efficiencies and to provide a safe and secure environment that will enhance the public's access to court information and services. Judge Klein addressed "Issue 5: Public Understanding, Trust, and Confidence." She explained the Court's dedication to increasing its community outreach and to providing opportunities for the community to have input into the Court's planning process. At the close of the presentation, Chief Judge Carroll provided final thoughts and facilitated a question and answer session.

Overall, the Court's Strategic Plan was very well received. The committee is currently preparing to present a final draft of the Strategic Plan for approval by the Board of Judges at its next quarterly meeting in September 2013.

COURT PUBLISHES ANNUAL REPORT

The Court marks each year with the publication of its Annual Report, which records the year's achievements and challenges. During the first week in June, the Court published its Annual Report for 2012. The report details the Court's ongoing efforts to cut costs, implement new technologies, improve public service, and extend access to justice while processing its massive caseload. This was the fifth consecutive year that the Court has managed the largest bankruptcy caseload of any court in the nation.

For the past three years, the Court has published the Annual Report both in print and in an easy-to-navigate electronic format on the Court's website. Please click here to view the web version of the 2012 Annual Report.

GENERAL ORDER 13-05: REFERENCE OF BANKRUPTCY CASES AND APPEALS

The District Court for the Central District of California has approved the bankruptcy-related General Order 13-05 that became effective on July 1, 2013. General Order 13-05 is titled Reference of Cases and Proceedings to the Bankruptcy Judges of the Central District of California, and Reference of Appeals to the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel.

General Order 13-05 addresses, among other things: (1) the referral of bankruptcy cases and proceedings by the District Court to the Bankruptcy Court; (2) the authority of bankruptcy judges to hear, determine, and enter final orders and judgments in "core" and "non-core" proceedings; and (3) the authority of bankruptcy judges to conduct jury trials. General Order 13-05 supersedes prior District Court bankruptcy-related General Orders 266, 266A, 269, and 96-04.

General Order 13-05 is posted on the Court's website (www.cacb.uscourts.gov) at the Rules & Procedures webpage under General Orders.

TRANSCRIPT ORDERING PROCESS

On July 1, a new process for requesting the transcript of a Court hearing became effective. Information about the new process, including a new list of Court-approved transcribers and the revised Transcript Order Form, is available on the Court's website. This information and form can be accessed by selecting Transcripts from the pull-down menu under the Information tab on the Court's website (<http://www.cacb.uscourts.gov>).

Under the new transcription process, those requesting the transcript of a hearing must select a transcriber from the new list of Court-approved transcribers and submit the Transcript Order Form to the Court. Court staff will no longer provide transcription fee estimates or collect transcription fees on behalf of the transcribers. Instead, the selected transcriber will contact the customer to provide a cost estimate and make arrangements to collect the deposit. Payment will be made directly to the transcriber by credit card or other payment method.

The new transcription process will speed up delivery of transcripts, provide customers with a choice of transcription agencies and payment methods, and reduce labor for Court staff.

COURT SELECTED AS HOST FOR UCLA ANN C. ROSENFELD FELLOW

The Court is pleased to announce that it applied and was selected as one of four organizations, and the only court, to host a Fellow as part of the Ann C. Rosenfield Public Affairs Fellowship Program for 2013-2014. The Rosenfield Fellowship is a high-level apprenticeship program for exceptional public policy, social welfare, and urban planning graduate students at UCLA. The Ann C. Rosenfield Fund provides financial support for the Fellow, who works in the host agency for one year. After a competitive selection process, Julie Pollock, who is enrolled in the Master of Social Welfare program at UCLA's Luskin School of Public Affairs, began work at the Court in June 2013. Over the next twelve months, Ms. Pollock will partner with the Court, the Bar, and community organizations to research and design educational outreach programs and services to address the unique needs and challenges related to seniors and bankruptcy.

CHAPTER 11 DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND PLAN FORMS

The Board of Judges has added a warning/disclaimer to the Chapter 11 Disclosure Statement and Chapter 11 Plan, as these forms have not been updated since 2004 and do not address changes in the Code. A committee of the Court is working on a revision of these two forms.

CM/ECF TIPS

Maintaining Your Account:

This is a reminder that ECF users have the capability to update their CM/ECF profile information by accessing CM/ECF > Utilities > Maintain Your Account. It is important to remember that if you are changing your address, you must file a change of address in each case in which you are a participant.

Petitions Containing both a Physical and Mailing Address for the Debtor:

When filing petitions containing both a physical and mailing address for the debtor, it is important that the physical address be entered in CM/ECF to properly determine the venue. The Court will ensure that notices are sent out to the debtor's mailing address.

CENTRAL DISTRICT CELEBRATES LESBIAN, GAY, BISEXUAL, TRANSGENDER, AND QUESTIONING PRIDE MONTH

In a first for the Central District, the U.S. Attorney's Office coordinated a LGBTQ (Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Questioning) Pride Month celebration event on June 20, in Judge O'Connell's courtroom at 312 N. Spring Street in Los Angeles. Bankruptcy Judge Maureen A. Tighe and District Judge Michael W. Fitzgerald, two of the first openly LGBT judges in the district, addressed the overflow audience.

The program title, "It Gets Better," was taken from a recent effort to create a positive outlook for LGBTQ teens, who as a group, suffer from a high incidence of suicide in the face of bullying, exclusion, and other difficulties. Judge Tighe and Judge Fitzgerald expanded the "It Gets Better" message to include the greater LGBTQ community as the judges took a look over the last four decades and highlighted some of the milestones that have been achieved.

SECOND ANNUAL 5K RUN/WALK BENEFITS DEBTOR ASSISTANCE PROJECT

On Saturday, April 27, the Second Annual Leslie Cohen Law 5K Run/Walk took place in Santa Monica, California to benefit Public Counsel's Debtor Assistance Project (DAP). This year's 5K raised $7,500 for the pro bono legal assistance program. Among the 300 runners and walkers who came out to support DAP on this beautiful day were prominent members of the bankruptcy community, including Judge Maureen A. Tighe, Judge Sandra R. Klein, and Chapter 13 Trustee Kathy Dockery. Ms. Dockery's team, "Dockery's Dashers," was one of the largest, and took home one of the team awards.

The event began early Saturday morning at Reed Emerson Park with coffee, bagels, and upbeat music. The 300 participants ran, jogged, and walked along the scenic course from the corner of Ocean and San Vicente through a lovely residential neighborhood in Santa Monica. The participants had a great time and are already looking forward to next year's 5K.
