The American College of Bankruptcy is a prestigious organization of bankruptcy and insolvency professionals whose Board of Regents selects new members each year. The selections are based on four criteria: “(i) the highest professional qualifications and ethical standards... (ii) the highest level of character, integrity, professional expertise and leadership... (iii) a commitment to fostering and furthering the objectives of the College; [and] (iv) sustained evidence of scholarship, teaching, lecturing and distinguished published writings on bankruptcy practice or insolvency practice.”

Judge Smith joins several of her colleagues from the Central District as a Fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. Along with Chief Judge Bluebond and Judge Tighe, Judges Barry Russell, Geraldine Mund, Robin L. Riblet, and Thomas B. Donovan have been inducted.

LAW DAY EVENT KICKS OFF CENTRAL DISTRICT CIVICS CONTEST

On March 2, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court and U.S. District Court for the Central District of California hosted a Law Day event for almost 40 students from Blair High School in Pasadena. The event was held in conjunction with the Ninth Circuit Civics Contest, an essay and video contest for high school students, with the theme: “The 14th Amendment: 150 Years after Ratification, What Does Equal Protection Mean to Students?”

At the beginning of the 2018 Law Day event, students shared lunch with numerous judges, lawyers and other professionals. During the lunch, the students discussed their post-graduation plans as well as their career goals and the volunteers acted as mentors to the students, providing advice, encouragement and support. Chief District Judge Virginia A. Phillips and District Judge John A. Kronstadt participated in the event, as did Chief Bankruptcy Judge Sheri Bluebond and Bankruptcy Judges Barry Russell, Thomas B. Donovan (Ret.), Erithe A. Smith, Victoria S. Kaufman, and Sandra R. Klein. Clerk of Court Kathy Campbell and members of her staff also attended.

Judge Klein provided a brief history of the 14th Amendment and highlighted Justice Kennedy's discourse on it from Obergefell, emphasizing his comment, “The nature of injustice is that we may not always see it in our own times.” Next, Judge Klein introduced the Law Day guest

Using the Search Feature in CM/ECF

The Search feature located on the blue menu bar in CM/ECF is a helpful tool when searching for an event code. If you click on Search and enter a keyword, such as “relief” for relief from stay, CM will list all of the areas where the word “relief” appears. This is an excellent way to verify event codes prior to filing documents.

FEDERAL CAREER DAY

On April 5, the San Fernando Valley Division hosted Federal Career Day for 25 students from Santa Clarita's College of the Canyons. Federal officers representing various agencies shared their insight and advice about pursuing careers in government. Agents from the FBI, Federal Public Defender, U.S. Attorney's Office, U.S. Pretrial Services, IRS, DEA, ICE, U.S. Probation, U.S. Marshals Service, and the Federal Protective Service took part in a panel discussion moderated by Bankruptcy Judge Maureen A. Tighe. The panelists discussed preferred degrees and educational backgrounds, day-to-day activities in their respective careers, and job screening and application procedures. Afterwards, the panelists and students continued the discussion over lunch.

JUDGES JURY, SALTZMAN, AND BRAND HOLD PANEL ON ELIMINATION OF BIAS

On March 27, the Inland Empire Bankruptcy Forum hosted “Elimination of Bias Program: Sex-Based Bias in the Workplace,” a conversation with Judges Meredith A. Jury, Deborah J. Saltzman, and Julia W. Brand. President-elect and Program Chair Cathy Ta, an attorney at Best, Best & Krieger, moderated the event, held at the Riverside Marriott. Ms. Ta introduced the topic and led the discussion, which took up the concepts of implicit bias and role-based gender bias, the number of women enrolled in law school, compensation of female attorneys, and women's representation in the legal profession, private practice, and state and federal judgeships.
