CHINESE TAX OFFICIALS TOUR LOS ANGELES DIVISION

On November 2, a group of 25 members of China's National Tax Bureau visited the Los Angeles Division to learn about the American legal system and bankruptcy law. After Judge Robert N. Kwan welcomed them in his courtroom and provided an overview of the bankruptcy process, Clerk's Office staff led them on a tour of the Court. The group then returned to Judge Kwan's courtroom to meet Chief Judge Sheri Bluebond and discuss bankruptcy with Judge Kwan. Each member of the delegation received a token with the Court's official seal.

JUDGE SCOTT C. CLARKSON LECTURES ON REMBRANDT'S LIFE AND BANKRUPTCY

Judge Scott C. Clarkson will give a lecture and visual presentation at the Denver Art Museum on November 30, in conjunction with the ongoing exhibition Rembrandt: Painter as Printmaker. He gave a preview of the presentation, "Rembrandt: The Bankrupt Printmaker—His Life and Bankruptcy Proceedings of 1656," in his Santa Ana courtroom on October 25. Judge Clarkson is a noted documentary photographer.

JUDGE SANDRA R. KLEIN SWEARS IN OVER 2,600 NEW CITIZENS

On September 18, during an early morning ceremony at the Los Angeles Convention Center, Judge Sandra R. Klein administered the Oath of Allegiance to the United States of America to 2,605 new citizens.

Addressing the crowd, Judge Klein described the journeys two of her grandparents made from Lithuania and England to the United States, and the flag her family still has from her grandmother's naturalization in 1939. She applauded the new U.S. citizens for their hard work, commitment, and sacrifice, and reminded them that America is a melting pot of different ideas, cultures, and beliefs. As John F. Kennedy said, "Immigrants have enriched and strengthened the fabric of American life."

Judge Klein concluded her speech with a quote from John Quincy Adams: "You will never know how much it cost my generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make good use of it." She urged the new citizens to take good care of our country and to make good use of their freedoms as U.S. citizens. Among those naturalized at the ceremony were four U.S. military service members from American Samoa, Korea, and the Philippines, who were specially honored after Judge Klein's remarks.

CM/ECF TIPS

Avoiding Duplicate Charges/Payments - Online Credit Card Payments

When to File a Motion to Reopen a Bankruptcy Case

A Motion to Reopen a bankruptcy case should be filed only when the bankruptcy case has been closed. The case docket must be reviewed to verify that the case is closed prior to filing this Motion. If the Motion to Reopen event code is used to file the document and the case is still open, users will still be required to pay the appropriate filing fee.

Motion Filed on the Wrong Bankruptcy Matter

When a motion is filed in the wrong bankruptcy case, the Court's procedure is that the incorrect motion must be withdrawn by filing a pleading using the Voluntary Dismissal of Motion event code. If the incorrectly filed document is a fee motion, you must pay the fee upon filing it in the correct case, then make a written request for a refund on the incorrect filing by emailing the ECF Support Desk at ecf_support@cacb.uscourts.gov.

Verify Payments or View Payment History in CM/ECF

The following reports are useful tools in balancing your credit card statement. You may access these reports by selecting "Utilities" from the CM/ECF main menu.

- To run the payments due report, click on Utilities > Internet Payments Due. If a payment or payments are due, A Payment Summary screen will display. Select items to be paid and proceed with payment.
- To check your payment history, click on Utilities > Internet Payment History. Enter the date range. Click Run Report. The report will display.
