COURT PUBLISHES 2017 ANNUAL REPORT

The Court marks each year with the publication of its annual report, which records the year's achievements and challenges. In August, the Court published the 2017 Annual Report. The report details the Court's ongoing efforts to improve service and extend access to justice through technological innovation, participation in national and regional initiatives, and community outreach. A PDF of the 2017 Annual Report is posted on the Court's website, and hard copies are available by request from Clerk of Court Kathleen J. Campbell at (213) 894-6244.

HONOR ROLL RECEPTION RECOGNIZES PRO BONO VOLUNTEERS IN LOS ANGELES, WOODLAND HILLS

On July 21, the Court hosted a reception for the volunteers named on the Honor Roll at Southwestern Law School. Held in conjunction with the Central District Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys Association (cdcbaa), the breakfast reception preceded the cdcbaa's Annual James T. King Symposium, and focused on recognizing volunteers from the Los Angeles and San Fernando Valley Divisions. The Court publishes an update to the Honor Roll each year, based on the names submitted by each of the self-help desks in the Central District.

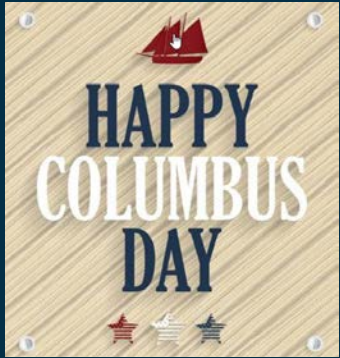

The Public Counsel and Neighborhood Legal Services personnel who staff the self-help desks in Los Angeles and Woodland Hills attended, along with 23 attorney volunteers. Chief Judge Sheri Bluebond and Judges Vincent P. Zurzolo, Neil W. Bason, and Martin R. Barash also attended the breakfast, along with Clerk of Court Kathleen J. Campbell and members of her staff. Guests mingled over an assortment of fruit, pastries, breakfast burritos, scrambled eggs, and French toast. Volunteers' swag bags included an Honor Roll certificate and a portable mobile device charger bearing the "Celebrate Pro Bono" logo. Chief Judge Bluebond spoke at the reception and praised the volunteers' efforts to assist those who cannot afford attorney representation.

Volunteers at the Riverside Division were recognized in conjunction with an Inland Empire Bankruptcy Forum event earlier this year. Northern Division will be honoring volunteers at an event in November.

CM/ECF TIPS

Avoiding Duplicate Charges/Payments - Online Credit Card Payments

When making payments in CM/ECF via Pay.gov, please be reminded of the following:

- A. At no time during the payment process should you use the browser button. Doing so may result in a duplicate charge to the attorney's credit card.
- B. Please do not double-click the Submit Payment button at any time. Doing so may result in a duplicate charge to the attorney's credit card.
- C. After clicking Submit Payment, if the payment receipt screen does not display for whatever reason (computer malfunction, power outage, etc.), please do not attempt to submit payment again without checking your payment history or contacting the ECF Help Desk. Doing so may result in a duplicate charge to the attorney's credit card.
- D. Fees are due upon completion of a filing requiring a fee. If you choose to accumulate filing fees throughout the day, all fees must be paid by the end of the day in which the filings occurred. If the filing fees are not paid by the end of the day, the registered ECF User will receive a daily email reminder that payment is due and will be locked out of the CM/ECF system 24 hours after filing.
- E. To run the payments due report, click on Utilities > Internet Payments Due. If a payment or payments are due, the Payment Summary screen will display; select items to be paid and proceed with payment.
- F. To check your payment history, click on Utilities > Internet Payment History. Enter the date range, click Run Report, and the report will display.

If at any time you experience problems with processing your payment or have questions concerning payment, please contact the ECF Help Desk at (213) 894-2365 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding federal holidays. We are here to help.
